

SECURING THE WHT EXEMPTION ON ITALIAN BONDS IN PRACTICE

Disclaimer: The statements herein are based on the laws and/or interpretations in force in Italy as of the date hereof and are subject to any changes in law or interpretations occurring after such date, which changes could be made on a retroactive basis. This memorandum is provided for information purposes only and cannot be relied upon in the decision to subscribe for, purchase, own or dispose of Italian Bonds and does not purport to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors. Prospective purchasers of Italian issued bonds should consult their own tax advisers concerning the overall tax consequences of their ownership of the Bonds.

Note: the procedure to ensure gross payment on Italian Bonds is reliant on the proper clearance of the account where the relevant securities are held in custody. Prospective Noteholders who have already cleared their account status, as described in paragraph 5 below, in relation to prior Italian bond transactions would normally only be required to hold the Bonds in custody on the previously cleared account.

FOREWORD

1. Under Italian law ("Decree 239/1996") interest, premium and other income (including the difference between the redemption amount and the issue price) (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Interest") from Italian Bonds are subject to a 26% substitute tax when received by, among others, non-Italian resident persons not acting through a permanent establishment in Italy.
2. The substitute tax applies not only upon payment of the coupon, but also upon redemption and transfer of the Bonds.
3. The substitute tax is applied by the Italian bank or other financial intermediary, or Italian permanent establishment of a foreign bank or financial intermediary, that intervenes in the payment of the relevant income.

ELIGIBLE GROSS RECIPIENTS

4. However, an exemption from the substitute tax applies provided that the relevant Noteholder, is:
 - (a) the beneficial owner of the Interest and resident, for tax purposes, in a State or territory listed as allowing for an adequate exchange of information with Italy (the "White List", attached as Exhibit I); or
 - (b) an "institutional investor" – i.e., an entity whose activity consists in making or managing investments on its own behalf or on behalf of other persons – whether or not subject to tax, established in one of the States or territories included in the White List; or
 - (c) an international entity or organisations established in accordance with international agreements ratified in Italy; or
 - (d) a Central Bank or an entity which manages, inter alia, the official reserves of a State.

PROCEDURE: CLEARING THE RELEVANT CUSTODY ACCOUNT

5. In order to ensure gross payments, eligible non-resident investors must:
 - (a) deposit, directly or indirectly, the Bonds with a resident bank or stock broker or a permanent establishment in Italy of a non-Italian resident bank or stock broker or with a non-Italian resident entity or company participating in a centralised securities management system which is connected, via data link, with the Italian Ministry of Economy and Finance; Euroclear and Clearstream are eligible entities for such purposes (all such entities are normally referred to as "Second Level Bank" or "SLB"); and
 - (b) file with the relevant custodian (i.e. their direct custody relationship, being referred to as "First Level Bank", that would, on its turn, hold the securities directly or indirectly with the Second Level Bank), preferably prior to or concurrently with the deposit of the Bonds (and, in any event, before any taxable event), a self-statement¹, which remains valid indefinitely until withdrawn or revoked, whose sample is attached as Exhibit II. The boxes highlighted in red refer to old legislation and may be ignored.

¹ The statement, which is not requested for international bodies or entities set up in accordance with international agreements which have entered into force in Italy nor in the case of foreign Central Banks or entities which manage, inter alia, official reserves.

(c) Failure of a non-Italian resident Noteholder to comply in due time with all the procedures described above will result in the application of substitute tax on Interest accrued until the date when all procedure are completed. For this reason, prospective Noteholders are advised to make sure that all appropriate custody arrangements are in place before purchasing the Bonds.
